PETITIONING THE COURT

To issue a warrant.

The probation officer believes that the offender has violated the following condition(s) of supervision:

Violation Number Nature of Noncompliance

- 1 Mandatory Condition # 2: The defendant shall not commit another Federal, state, or local crime.

Supporting Evidence: On March 24, 2013, the offender was arrested in Chelan County for second degree driving while license suspended, operating a vehicle without ignition interlock, and refusal to comply with police. On April 15, 2013, the offender was found guilty of second degree driving while license suspended, and the other two counts were dismissed. Mr. Rodriguez-Torres is currently in custody at Chelan County Jail serving his time on this conviction.

- 2 Special Condition # 14: You are prohibited from returning to the United States without advance legal permission from the United States Attorney General or his designee. Should you reenter the United States, you are required to report to the probation office within 72 hours of reentry.

Supporting Evidence: The offender completed his term of incarceration on the instant Federal matter, and was deported from the United States at San Ysidro, California, on July 2, 2011. On March 24, 2013, the offender was arrested for new law violations in Chelan County in the Eastern District of Washington. The offender did not have advance legal permission from the United States Attorney General or his designee prior to returning to the United States, nor did he contact the probation office within 72 hours of reentry. The undersigned officer was further advised by an agent of the Department of Homeland Security that a criminal complaint would be forthcoming in the near future

Re: Rodriguez-Torres, RamiroMay 9, 2013*Page 2

The U.S. Probation Office respectfully recommends the Court issue a warrant for the arrest of the offender to answer the allegations contained in this petition.

I declare under penalty of perjury that the foregoing is true and correct.
